Connexions

Giving you the support
you need to get on in life

For young people with additional needs

Connexions offers a confidential support service to young people aged 13 up to 25 years old, who have an additional need, learning difficulty and/or disability.

We provide independent information, advice and guidance on: education, employment and training choices; career planning; money matters; housing and health issues; relationships and personal development activities.

Want to contact us?

To arrange an appointment either contact your Connexions Personal Adviser at your school/college or call us – see the back of the leaflet for all contact details.

Information available for you and your family:

'Transition - a young person's guide'

A leaflet that introduces you to Transition Planning and the Review process.

'Choices - a personal guide and workbook for options after Year 11'

A workbook and guide about post-16 options and choices. It also has sections that you can fill in, to help you plan and decide what you want to do.

'My future - a guide to education, employment and training options'

A booklet that provides basic information on choices using symbols and images.

'Transition - an overview for parents and carers'

A leaflet that gives an overview of the Transition Planning and Review process.

'Transition and options - an extended guide for parents and carers of young people with additional needs'

A brochure about the Transition process with details about: education, employment and training options; the role of social care services; money matters; housing options and some useful contact details.

For any of these please contact Connexions - details overleaf.

Our centres

Our centres have access facilities such as: lifts; disabled toilets; temporary ramps; ground floor locations; hearing loops; minicom and a front doorbell to get help. If you have an access need; please check with your local centre when you book an appointment.

Our Publications

We can also produce our literature in a variety of formats such as: large print, braille, audio and languages other than English.
